He died 2 Mar 1950
Her companion near 30 years
widowed 38+ yrs

The first time I met her was at her Rest Home at 43 No 100 west. (3rd)

By then she had already had her 17 Jan 1951 first rest home @ 288 So 100 East &
2nd " " @ 315 So Main St.
Later her 4th Rest home was in old Abram Hatch (Zions Bk) masion at 81 E. Center St.

This acquaintance grew into a fondness for her sincere Love consideration caring for peace comfort for a number older patients of mine.

She often cared for many who were much younger than she.

As my interest deepened in the history of Keetley, Moulton-Lee ville, Hailstone & Jordanelle due to my Collins family relationships; I often talked to Lydia about all the families in that area.

She had so much knowledge about late pioneer days and she really bridged from pioneer to modern times.

From Nelda Lee — Can you imagine ~~being born~~ living in a log cabin c̄ dirt floor & dirt roof. Several buckets & pans were necessary in a rainstorm. This cabin was located about 2 blocks "below" the Moulton-Lee mansion on the hill east of the white barn in lower Keetley - earlier known as Moultonville

Lydia's siblings Thos J. † at 14 mos of whooping cough & measles
Sarah Ann Lee ∞ Nymphus Hyrum Murdock
Margarette Ellen Lee ∞ Arza F Remund
Orson Monroe Lee ∞ Iona Lavina Lewis
Fay Lee ∞ Golda Jennie Lockes
Dell Lee ∞ Ada McDonald have all preceded her in death.

1904 — at 15 yrs she & family moved from the log cabin in to the large red sandstone mansion built by Wm Denton Moulton

This mansion originally housed Wm Denton Moulton and 2 wives { Mary / Mary Ann Davis
He was a wagon freighter of dairy products & meats from that ranch over into the Deer Valley into Park City Veal, pork, beef daily.

Orson Henry Lee came to work for Mr Moulton & stayed & took over the business of freighting -

Lydia had a spirit of willingness to serve — what a fine characteristic Charity: this is a spiritual gift from our heavenly father

Charity - what is it?

Moroni 7:45
1 Corinth 13:4-7

Pure Love of Christ

comes by Grace

sufferreth long and is kind and envieth not
and is not puffed up = humble.
seeketh not her own = unselfish is not easily provoked thinketh no evil { rejoiceth not in iniquity, but
" in truth
beareth all things
believeth all things.
hopeth all things
endureth all things.

Bros. & Sisters we can learn a lot from Lydia & her families

All knew the log cabin — Love compassion, communion service Charity endurance & all the attributes of Charity.

I truly believe that Lydia will lead many into a reward greater than us — because she knew how to serve. She certainly did well.
May the Lord bless us in our efforts to serve!

In the name of Jesus Christ, amen
